

Highlights from the Hill

As we enter the winter season we need to be aware that snow and ice may prevent travelling to church on Sundays. In the event of inclement weather, we will notify everyone by email if church services are cancelled. Please check the Hope website, Facebook page, voicemail message and local TV stations.

As a people so bold, what are we tilling and planting? Shifting with the equinox, we will explore where we intend to sow out added (day)light in our life, community, and soul.
